

Principles for success in digital transformation

Philipp Karmires

Vice President & Chief Digital Officer, Linde plc

The presentation explains why the following 3 principles are crucial for success in an established business with regards to digital transformation and generating sustainable value.

- Fall in love in what you are not in what you would like to be
- Be aware about your company DNA
- Be a practitioner to drive behavioural change

The presentation includes interactive examples and context via screenshare.